Council To Look Into Moving Carmel Theater To Corporation Yard

"WHADYA MEAN MY KID AIN'T ELIGIBLE!?"

Bill Woolsey, skipper of the Carmel Little League, invites all boys in the 11-12 age group who would like to be Little Leaguers to report to the High School baseball diamond this Sunday from 1:00 to 4:00 o'clock and take a fling at making one of the major league teams. Boys who participated on a major league team last season need not take part in the tryouts.

President Woolsey wants only the 11 and 12-year-olds at this Sunday's tryouts in order that each boy be given every opportunity to make one of the teams. The eight to 10-age group will have its tryout on Sunday, March 22, at the same time and same place.

When embryo Little Leaguers report to the High School field on Sunday they should have a photostatic copy of their birth certificate or a notarized affidavit of the birth date signed by both parents. A Little Leaguer's age is based on that attained by August 1. Players should also bring their own glove but lack of a glove won't stop anyone from having a tryout.

Little Leaguers who are already assigned to a major league team (Boy's Town, Wilder & Jones, Turner & McEldowney, San Carlos Agency, Pilot, Sport Shop) are requested to report to Mr. Van King and Mr. Henry "Pappy" Hesse at the Little League Field on Sunday at 1:30 o'clock.

Sailor Jumps Fence At Police Station In Brief Escape

John F. Gray, 21, a sailor at the Naval Air Facility at Monterey, escaped from the Carmel police station last night while being booked on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on the beach.

Gray slipped through the back door of the station and jumped over the fence. He later was apprehended on the highway.

Also booked on the same charge was Gray's companion on the beach, Kenneth J. Ragsdale, 19, a sailor at the same facility. Police arrested the youths at 5:15 o'clock.

Sat. Last Chance To Get Tickets For 1959 - 60 Concerts

Saturday is the last day to obtain memberships for the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association's 1959-60 season. The group's membership drive opened on Monday night with a dinner in the Pacific Grove Masonic Temple.

Miss Alma Lauritzen, concert series representative from San Francisco, was the speaker. She told about artists available for appearances as possible next season. Already under contract for the Concert Association's

Join Monterey Bill Out Of Committee But Not Same Bill

A bill to permit the down coast school districts to unify with the Monterey high school district came out of committee in Sacramento this week with "do pass," and Senator Fred Farr, its proponent, will see it through the Senate.

It is not the bill that Monterey high school district wanted. The bill makes the unification contingent upon the approval of the county board of school district reorganization. In view of a change of opinion on the part of some of the Pfeiffer school parents and trustees who now favor annexing to the Carmel School District, the county board may not look favorably on the proposed joining with Monterey. A special bill was necessary since the down coast schools are not contiguous with Monterey. Carmel intervenes.

New Fenton Plans For 3 Buildings Go To Committees

Plans for three commercial buildings on the Ocean Avenue frontage of the Fenton Block between Junipero and Mission were filed with Building Inspector Floyd Adams this week and this afternoon will be given to the Carmel Planning Commission committees on land use, architecture, etc., for study and report at the planning commission's study session Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

The elaborate block-covering three level development earlier contemplated has been abandoned, according to Bud Clark, representative of Leslie C. Fenton, owner of the property.

The three structures, under a common roof, are modernistic in design. Materials used will be stucco, white brick and redwood. The structure on the corner of Junipero and Ocean, to be occupied by I. Magnins, is to be one story tall; Bank of America building on Mission and Ocean will be two stories, with the middle building, which does not yet have a prospective tenant, one story in height. Walkways will separate the buildings. Setbacks on all sides are four feet.

The three-building structure extends 130 feet deep in the block. No decision has been made as to what use will be made of the rest of the land, Mr. Clark said.

"We're disappointed," he added, but insisted that the council's overruling the plannig commission's approval of a service station in the planned underground parking garage makes it impossible to go ahead with the larger project. "Anyway, you can be sure that whatever is done will be done with Mr. Fenton's best efforts to make

Citizens Committee Invites Public To Hear City Planner

John W. Cone, widely known economist and city planner of the San Francisco Bay area, will address a meeting of Carmel area citizens at 8:00 o'clock Friday in the Sunset School Cafeteria, on the subject Highlights of City Planning. The meeting is open to the public.

The Carmel Citizens Committee, which is sponsoring the gathering, urges attendance. This group is headed by Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN Ret.), and consists of numerous residents, more than 300 of whom have signified their desire actively to participate in its program. The aim of the Committee is the establishment of a sound city plan based on the premise that Carmel is primarily a residential area in a growing and progressive Peninsula-wide community. This concept was given encouragement at the recent meet-

Anybody want a monstrous concrete theatre, vintage of 1930, movie palace Moorish-Spanish style of the 'twenties? It's yours for the taking. All you have to do is haul it away from the corner of Ocean and Mission Streets. Leslie Fenton wants to build a Bank of America building on the land. This morning, Bud Clark, Fenton's representative, verified the offer which has been buzzing as a rumor about town all week.

The theatre chairs do not go with the gift. They belong to the chain that has been operating the theatre, Mr. Clark said.

Yesterday, Mayor John Chitwood, several city councilmen, and George Willox, chairman of the Carmel Planning Commission, thought the offer should be looked into. Perhaps the theatre could be moved up to the city corporation yard at Junipero and Torres, next to the Youth Center, and be remodelled into a two story city hall with post office down stairs, city offices upstairs, they thought. Moving would cost anywhere from $10,000 to $14,000 was the rough guess. Bill for remodelling hadn't arrived at the guessing point. But there was some mental arithmetic about the money the city would receive from the post office lease.

This morning enthusiasm had cooled a little.

After you've cut off the projections on the side, the building is still 55 feet wide. Mission street is 50 feet wide if you count the sidewalks. If you got the monstrous shell as far as Junipero, it could proceed north serenely for a block and a half. Then it would get stuck, in Carmel Pines.

"I don't think it's practical," said Bud Clark. "There'd be too much public opposition to cutting down all those pines."

There are concrete cutting saws that will slice a theatre in half, Mayor Chitwood says. It doesn't cost anything to get an estimate of moving costs, and very little for rough remodelling plans.

General official opinion is that it probably wouldn't work out but the least one should do with a gift horse is look it in the mouth. — W.C.

Symphony To Present Beethoven's Ninth

Beethoven's Ninth Symphony will be presented by the Monterey County Symphony, Orchestra and Symphony Chorus on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Sunset Auditorium, Gregory Millar conducting. Soloists will be Norma Jean Scott, soprano; Jean Canada, contralto; John Sundquist, baritone; Harold Inverson, tenor.

The Coronation Scene from Mussorgsky's Boris Godounov opens the program. It is the only other music to be played at Tuesday evening's Symphony concert. Soloists for this number are Harold Inverson, tenor, and Ted Cross, bass.

This is the third concert of the Symphony's 1958-59 season. The last symphony appearance this season will be in May.

Arts Commission Approves Festival, But What Kind?

Carmel Arts Commission yesterday afternoon unanimously decided to have an Arts Festival in Carmel and included writing as one of the arts.

Then they spent almost two hours bandying ideas about the festival. Should it have a theme artist like Rembrandt or be broader and include all the contemporary arts? Who should produce it, a citizens' committee, perhaps? Would the city council approve? Should a festival director be hired? How would it be financed? These questions were all considered.

Commissioner Vaughn Shoemaker wanted the Arts Festival identified with one painter, such as Rembrandt; Commissioner Gilbert Boyer disagreed with this. Mr. Boyer did not want to limit the scope of an Arts Festival to one personality.

Commissioner Nelo Drizari suggested the festival be centered around Leonardo da Vinci, whose work encompassed almost all the arts. Commissioner Geza St. Galy admitted he was prejudiced in favor of Rembrandt, "My favorite artist."

Commissioner Ruth Cooke pointed out the tremendous amount of work necessary to produce an Arts Festival, citing as example her experience over the years with the Bach Festival. Commissioner Laurence Barretto doubted that a festival could be built about any one painter. "Is Rembrandt comparable to Bach?" he queried.

Chairman Maxine Albro (Mrs. Parker Hall) thought the Carmel

GILROY WINS CARMEL CAGE TOURNEY

Coach Bob Hagen's smooth-working Gilroy High hoop quintet breezed through the 12th Annual Carmel Basketball Tournament to pick up another leg on the Peter Ferrante Perpetual Trophy which goes to a team which wins the popular cage festival three times.

With the win in this year's "Carmel," the Mustangs have two legs on the big trophy and could take home the gold in '60. Easily the class of the tournament, the Mustangs rewrote most of the tourney records as they powered over Pacific Grove, Monterey and Fremont on their way to the title.

Led by the spectacular Dick Smith, who pumped through 80 points in the three games, Gilroy got off to a fast start against Pacific Grove by rubbing the Breakers 77 to 28, to set a new single game tourney record. The Mustangs were pressed by Monterey in the second night's play but appeared to be coasting as they confidently handled the Toreadores. Saturday night's outcome was a foregone conclusion as the Smith-led Mustangs toyed with the Fremont Indians for an easy 47 to 40 win. Smith hit for 22 markers this one and appeared to be under wraps as the strong rebounding of Bruton and Latzke gave the Mustangs complete game control.

Coach Ed Larsh's hard-working Monterey High squad took home the third-place trophy by drubbing host Carmel, 55 to 38, as Mason and McElroy proved too tough for the Padres to handle. Mason burned the net for 19 points in the third-place final and McElroy hit for 15. Dale Dawson topped the Carmel scorers with 13 points and was a steady scorer for the Padres throughout the tournament.

Best game of the final night was the Hollister - Gustine consolation affair which went into double overtime before Hollister nipped the scrappy little Indians from Gustine. This one was all locked up at 37-37 when the final buzzer ended the regulation playing time and after the first overtime the knot was still tied at 39-39. Hollister's Joe Pogi and Marvin Grimsley tanked field goals for the Haybalers in the second overtime to give Coach William Lawson's team the consolation trophy.

Picking the Most Valuable Player of the tournament was an easy task as all-everything Dick Smith of Gilroy was a shoo - in for the honor.

Gilroy dominated the all-tournament squad with Smith and Don Bruton getting two of the spots. Mel Mason of Monterey, Gino Scatina of Fremont, and Bill Hicks of Carmel rounded out the all-tourney squad. Gustine's Jerry Perreira took home the Sportsmanship Trophy donated by the Continental Athletic Supply Company.

CARMEL HIGH TRACK TEAM TOO STRONG FOR GONZALES

Coach Fred Rainer's powerful Carmel High track team started the season in high gear last Saturday by outscoring the visiting teams from Watsonville and Gonzales in the heavyweight division. Watsonville dominated the lightweight division to swamp Carmel and Gonzales rather handily.

Carmel picked up 72 points in the varsity meet to Watsonville's 45 and 21 for Gonzales. Phil White and Dare Conroy were the top scorers for Carmel's well-balanced team, both getting 13 points. Conroy won both sprints and placed second in the broad jump while White won the pole vault and the broad jump and ran second in the high hurdles.

Carmel's scorers in the varsity division were: Bill Harder, 1st in both hurdles; Bill Kearney, 1st in the half-mile; Joe Foster, 2nd in the half-mile; Frank Mayo, 2nd in the 440; Bill True, 3rd in the 440; Pete Hansen, 1st in the mile; Bob Kimball, 3rd in the mile; Jeff Smith, 3rd in the shotput; Dave Vincent, 2nd in the discus; Nick Verlin, 1st in the high jump and 2nd in the pole vault.

Carmel's lightweight point winners were: Joe Zoellin, 3rd in the 660; Lee Oleson, 1st in the 330; Frank Preve, 3rd in the 330; Dan Moore, 3rd in the 1320; and Gary Clay, 3rd in the pole vault.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS FOR PADRES FRIDAY

A week's practice under sunny skies has ironed the kinks out of Carmel High's baseball candidates and they are ready for some live competition from Santa Cruz tomorrow afternoon. The Cardinals are loaded with baseball talent this season and are co-favorites with Monterey to pick up all the chips in the CCAL A-division. Carmel has seven lettermen returning from last year's B-division championship club and could be a threat this season if some pitching strength develops.

Lettermen who will wear the Padre spangles again this season are Bud Conroy, pitcher-third baseman; Larry Dufur, outfielder; Dale Dawson, outfielder; Phil O'Shea, pitcher-third baseman; Walt Helm, third baseman; Ron Hinchcliff, outfielder, and Ron Faia, shortstop. Faia was one of the top shortstops in the league last year and stroked a solid .465 to lead the B-division hitters.

Players coming up from Coach Dan Yurkovich's junior varsity crew for a try with the big club are Mike Draper, second baseman; Bud Cunningham, first base; John Draper, third baseman; Bob Little, shortstop; Frank Bucher, catcher; John Wilkin, catcher; Mike Taylor, outfielder, and Chris Wilkin, first base. Transfer students and newcomers to baseball giving the varsity a whirl are Darrell Clark, Bob Moore, Mike Cole, Curt Van Arsdale and Dave Fuller. Fuller was a baseball letterman at Coronado High School and should be a big help to the Padre infield.

Catcher Dave Hanson, sidelined with a bad arm last season, appears in good shape this year and could be Carmel's number one backstop.

The Padres' four-man pitching corps consists of Cim Conway, Phil O'Shea, Dare Conroy and freshman Jim Brown. Brown pitched for Carmel's Babe Ruth entry last season and has the poise to be a fine prospect for this year's varsity.

YOUTH FOLLIES POSTPONED UNTIL JULY 30

The April date for the Carmel Youth Follies has been cancelled. The annual show presented by the Carmel Youth Center members will be given instead on July 30 and 31 and August 1.

Cancellation of the show this spring is necessary because Mrs. Bonnie Giles, director of the show, has recently undergone an operation. Released from the hospital this week, she is prevented by doctor's orders from rehearsing the Youth Follies until early summer.

Chamber Music Society Announces Audition Winners

The Chamber Music Society of Carmel held its youth auditions, open to musicians under 20 years old, on Sunday. Four pianists and one flutist competed at the home of the Reverend H. M. M. Nicholas, who is general chairman of the youth auditions.

Winners of the auditions were Katherine Thompson of 416 Park Street, Salinas, who played the Telemann Flute Suite in A minor, accompanied at the piano by her sister, Nancy; Stephanie Craviotto of Carmel for her playing of the Mozart Piano Concerto in A Major, Koechel 488; and Carole Crumpley of Monterey for her playing of the Mozart Piano Concerto in C Major, Koechel 467. Miss Crumpley and Miss Craviotto were tied for first place among the piano entrants. Other participants were Herbert Myers of Carmel High School and Ernest Tweedy of Monterey High School.

The judges of the competition were Dr. Harvey Marshall, chairman of the music department at Monterey Peninsula College; Marjorie Wurzmann, concert pianist; Elizabeth Alexander, former accompanist for Isaac Stern and other distinguished artists, and David Hagemeyer, violinist and a key figure in the Chamber Music Society and the Carmel String Quartet. The winners will play at the next two concerts of the Chamber Music Society of Carmel on April 26 and in May.

Katherine Thompson started flute with Jerald Slavich of Salinas, violinist and teacher, and has lately been studying with Mrs. Wayne Sorenson, first flutist of Santa Clara Philharmonic. She is 13 years old and an eighth grader at Washington Junior High in Salinas. Her sister accompanist studies piano with Mrs. Mildred Hayes and organ with Mrs. Handrikson of Salinas. Many will remember her sister Joyce, now a music major in her junior year at San Jose State.

Stephanie Craviotto, who graduated from Carmel High School in 1957, is a music major at Santa Barbara College. She started playing with Myra Palache in Berkeley when she was eight years old. She later studied with Robert Forbes in Carmel. In 1954, Stephanie played in the Junior Bach Festival in Berkeley. For seven years she took part in national auditions.

Carole Crumpley is a senior at Monterey High School and an honor student. She is organist at the Church of Religious Science in Monterey. She began her piano study with Dr. Hopkins of Monterey. She has been studying for three years with Gilbert Boyer, concert pianist and director of the Carmel Studios of Music. She has participated in the Junior Bach Festival auditions in Berkeley for two years.

Alice Post Tabor

With the death Friday morning of Miss Alice Post Tabor, Professor of German, University of California, Carmel has lost one of its most distinguished citizens. Although living in retirement here for a number of years, she was nevertheless known to a few chosen friends as a woman of rare personal qualities as well as the possessor of an unusually fine mind. Her students will remember her with deep affection.

Together with her close friend, Professor Pauline Sperry, Professor Tabor built the house at Carmelo Street and Santa Lucia which is now their home. They came here to spend their vacations. In 1948, Miss Tabor retired as Assistant Professor Emeritus. The friends later sold their Berkeley home to establish their permanent residence in Carmel.

Professor Tabor was born April 17, 1878, in Rochester, New York. She was a graduate of Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania and received her Master's and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Chicago. At different times previously she spent three years at the University of Berlin and other cultural centers in Europe.

For 32 years Professor Tabor was a member of the University of California faculty and was the first woman appointed to the German department. As one of the founders of the Women's Faculty Club at Berkeley, she served as treasurer of the building committee until the debts incurred in the construction of the clubhouse were cleared. Professor Tabor belonged to the Modern Language Association and to the American Association of University Professors.

She also served on the board of the Students Co-Operative Association from its inception and on the board of the Student Loan Fund on which her service continued until the present time. She was keenly interested in the welfare of the students and in numerous ways assisted quietly in their progress. She was also deeply concerned with world affairs and in spite of her retirement from active life she continued in this interest to the last.

She is survived by four nieces and nephews, children of her late brother, William, Ann and David Tabor and Mrs. William Bristol, all of Avon, New York.

Friends wishing to make gifts in memory of Professor Tabor may do so to the Carmel Foundation, Box 3424, Carmel.

Arts Commission Approves Festival, But What Kind?

Arts Festival was a fine name.

"People are definitely interested in the art of Carmel," she stated. Whether or not the city council would approve an Arts Festival was another concern of the chairman. She reminded commissioners of a similar project three years ago which was not approved by the council.

"That," said Councilman Gunnar Norberg, present in the audience, "was sponsored by the Carmel Business Association which has a low regard of the field of arts." He added that the Arts Commission, interested only in fine arts, would not foster festivals with "the pretensions or vulgar intentions of a business association." Arts commissioners would encourage a festival dealing specifically with the arts, not business, he felt. Mr. Norberg thought such a festival would have great weight in the community, predominantly residential.

Councilman Tom May, also in the audience, urged commissioners to allow the Arts Festival idea "To grow slowly, with a low budget and a high chance of success." He also suggested that, at first, the Arts Festival be centered about and coincidental with the Bach Festival and using its prestige. Later the two could have separate entities and separates dates, Mr. May said.

At this point Mrs. Cooke moved that the matter be taken under consideration until the next meeting of the Arts Commission on April 8.

In the meantime, at the suggestion of Chairman Albro, arts commissioners will study research material compiled by the American Symphony Orchestra League and loaned to the Carmel Arts Commission by the Monterey Peninsula Arts and Humanities Council.

This material covers all aspects of festivals conducted in American cities for a period of five to 10 years. Commissioner Gilbert Boyer brought this research material to yesterday's meeting. He stated that it encompassed surveys of successful festivals in 10 cities, including Flint, Michigan, whose festival is described in the current issue of Readers' Digest.

Commissioner Nelo Drizari asked the arts commission to include writing among the arts of any festival. He also wants a writers' conference in Carmel to help and interest the residents in that profession, "The art of arts," he maintained. It would also bring as many as 3,000 persons here and increase business, he said.

At the opening of the meeting, arts commissioners decided to beautify the city hall. A committee will inspect city-owned paintings, now stored at the Carmel Art Association Gallery, and investigate wallboard, preferably with good acoustic qualities. Members of this committee are Gilbert Boyer, Laurence Barretto and Vaughn Shoemaker.

The wallboard will be placed on the walls of the council chamber, a background for the display of the city's paintings.

Arts Commission secretary Larry Rose suggested that the pictures be brought to City Hall by street department members. "They are good people," he added, "they'll worry about safe hauling."

"We'll all come and look at them here, then," said Chairman Albro, "and decide what pictures to display." Commissioners Cooke, Drizari and St. Galy were appointed to a committee to study releasing of the Theater in the Ground at the Forest Theater and to plan a renting schedule for the Forest Theater next summer.

Hartnell College Players Design Own Sets For TV Drama

Most of the thriving village of Harrison, Texas, population over 25, will be depicted on the KSBW television stage Sunday afternoon when the Hartnell college-community playhouse presents The Old Beginning, starring Ed Jones, Mrs. Eva Tavernetti and Lloyd Ebel.

Bill Pacheo, Elizabeth Everton and other members of director Hal Ulrici's scene design class have prepared four sets for the Horton Foote social drama based on the life of a young man whose parents refuse to allow him to grow up.

Originally designed for the Philco Playhouse, the play is one of a series of six Foote scripts which were written with Harrison as a background. The Hartnell Thespians presented one of the other shows, The Dancers, about a year ago. This week's production will replace Request Movie on the Sunday afternoon viewing menu at 2:30 o'clock on channel eight.

For the first time in the three-year history of Hartnell television productions, KSBW cameramen will be shooting both exterior and interior scenes. Interior settings include a drug store, a bedroom and a real estate office. The outside scene is a village street near the store.

Sets will be moved to the stage of the television studio Friday.

Living Memorial To William Askew Dedicated Wednesday

Family, friends and city officials clustered around the newly finished stone planter at Junipero and Sixth Streets Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock. A bronze plaque has been installed in the planter inscribed: "In memoriam, William L. Askew, Superintendent of Streets from 1938 to 1958. A Planter of Trees; A Builder of Streets, A Man of Carmel."

City Clerk Larry Rose spoke for the committee of city officials responsible for the memorial, "A landscape area having as its prominent feature a Monterey Pine tree was chosen as appropriate for association with Bill's memory, at a location identified with Bill's work and of importance to the community. We earnestly believe that what the memorial symbolizes will become increasingly important as time passes."

Street Commissioner James Buffington and Mayor John Chitwood spoke of the importance of Mr. Askew's contribution in retaining the natural beauty of the town, his skill in meeting the practical needs of automobile traffic while still preserving the natural environment that is so valued by Carmel residents.

Mrs. William Askew, Sr., unveiled the plaque.

ing of County planners and professional advisors at Asilomar.

No special invitations are required but Carmel and other area officials are being requested to attend. Mr. Cone will speak briefly and a question period will follow.

Mr. Cone is a native of California, residing in Berkeley and is a graduate of the University of California. He obtained his degree of Bachelor of City Planning at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and this has been followed with many years of experience in both city and area planning. This includes several years in Fresno; duty with the King County Planning Commission in Seattle; four years as City Planner in Sunnyvale, all of which were marked by unprecedented success. Currently he is serving on the Economics staff of Stanford Research Institute, which has worldwide interests.

Sat. Last Chance To Get Tickets For 1959-60 Concerts

1959-60 series of concerts are the Henri Temianka Little Symphony and the Robert Joffrey Theatre Ballet.

Mr. Temianka is also the violinist-leader of the Paganini String Quartet which was heard here on one of the programs of the Concert Association this winter. Some years ago, he and members of the quartet at that time, made their permanent headquarters at Carmel Highlands.

At the close of the current membership drive two or more other concerts will be selected. Admission to Monterey Peninsula Concert Association events is by membership only.

This past season 88 members went by chartered bus to San Francisco to hear the Cosmopolitan Opera Company's production of La Boheme and Lucia di Lammermoor. The group was greeted backstage by Glynn Ross, stage manager, who described activities behind the scenes during opera productions. Association members were also welcomed by Gianna d' Angelo, coloratura soprano from the Scala who made her American debut that night singing Lucia, and Dorothy Warrenskjold who sang Mimi in La Boheme. This was the fourth opera trip arranged by Mrs. Clyde F. Dyke, Concert Association president.

All Association concerts are held in Pacific Grove High School Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock in the evening. Carmel residents may obtain tickets for the coming season of the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association at the Carmel Yarn Shop or the Browse Around Record Shop.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The Symphony Concert for children took place at Sunset Auditorium Sunday and again at Salinas High School Tuesday. A number of school buses were early in the Sunset yard on account of wrong information that the concert was at 3:00 instead of 4:00 o'clock, causing many of the young people to depart at about 4:30, thus missing the most interesting performance for them, the playing of the first movement of the Beethoven Concerto No. 1 by a 14-year-old high school boy from Salinas, Steven Damonte.

The youthful performer exhibited some strong technical manipulation but a mechanical conception. Musically he may develop with the years, and he deserved the full applause for his poise in playing with the orchestra. The opportunity to do this, as offered by the Symphony Association, should be sought when possible.

Throughout the program, which ended with Gould's popular Salute to America that uses the tune of Johnny Comes Marching Home, Conductor Gregory Millar pointed out the different groups of instruments in the orchestra and told interesting facts to the audience which contained a number of adults, but the auditorium should have been packed with the children for whom the concert is specially subscribed.

* * *

In a recent publicity statement a claim was made of "more and better" music recently brought to the community by one individual! In all fairness to others and Carmel's prestige, which I have intermittently known for 24 years, may I inform those more recently in touch with the Peninsula that though there are generally more events, there has never been anything better or as good in chamber music as the world-famous Brosa Quartet that gave two summer series here and at Mills College, financed by Mrs. Sprague Coolidge, who did so much for chamber music both in America and Europe. The series was presented in Carmel by Mrs. Phil Gordon, and I happened to supply the program notes in which a world premiere of a Hindemith work was given.

Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous managed for years to intrigue the best artists here on their way from San Francisco to Los Angeles, presenting them in their intimate Dolores Studio, where they founded the Bach Festival. The Monterey County Symphony started not long afterwards. The Carmel Music Society has brought many world-famous artists in yearly series for 25 years.

Pacific Grove's Community Concert Series has operated for 20 years with many famous artists and organizations presented, while such artist-teachers as David Alberto and others, have developed young musicians of a high standard.

Opera has been given in the Forest Theater. The Musical Art Club presented many younger artists from both local and surrounding cities as an incentive to their careers. Henry Cowell, now internationally known as an American composer, was a Carmel resident at the time I spent two and a half years here.

I was then music critic for the Daily Carmelite, no longer in existence, therefore possibly the logical person to defend this situation, even after spending many years in Washington, D. C., for existing programs tell what I did not hear.

The American Symphony League will hold its Workshop at Asilomar in June for the fourth year, bringing composers, conductors and symphony players together from all over the nation, an activity that is enhancing our musical standing. We are grateful for everybody's work on music in the community for which no one person can be assigned all the credit.

Musical activity was bound to increase with increased population, and as we hope all our cultural arts will increase also, that next Tuesday's Monterey County Symphony program with a Symphony Chorus in Beethoven's Ninth and the Coronation Scene from Mussorgsky's opera, Boris Godounov, will have a packed house at Sunset.

How the understanding of God's spiritual laws may be applied in daily living will be the topic of a Christian Science lecture to be given Monday evening, March 16, by Robert S. Van Atta of Rochester, New York, it was announced today by First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Carmel.

Mr. Van Atta, who is on tour as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in the church edifice, Monte Verde Street, near Sixth Avenue, at 8:00 o'clock. The lecture is open to the public without charge. Mr. Van Atta's subject will be Christian Science: Practical Christianity for Modern Times.

An engineer for a number of years, Mr. Van Atta served in an engineering capacity at one time on the Panama Canal and on railroad construction in Bolivia. He later was an aeronautical engineer with the Army Air Corps. He has been a student of Christian Science since 1913, is an experienced public practitioner of Christian Science healing, and has been a Christian Science lecturer since 1946.

M. J. Murphy

Michael J. Murphy, Carmel's pioneer builder, affectionately known here as Mike Murphy for over 50 years, died on March 7 of a heart attack. He was staying at his fishing camp on the Mackenzie River, near Vida, Oregon, at the time of his death.

Mr. Murphy was born in Minden, Utah, on June 26, 1885. He first came to Carmel on a visit in 1902. In 1904, shortly after his marriage to Miss Edna Owens, he returned here to live and was associated with Frank Devendorf, one of the founders of Carmel, in building homes in the village. Mrs. Murphy died in 1954.

In 1914, Mr. Murphy became a general contractor. Ten years later he established M. J. Murphy, Inc., a firm which sold building supplies, operated a lumber mill and cabinet shop, did rock crushing and concrete work and general contracting on the Peninsula for 30 years. The business was situated between San Carlos and Mission Streets below Ocean Avenue with the lumber yard on what is now known as the Fenton block. Mr. Murphy's home for 55 years was on Monte Verde Street at Ninth Avenue.

As Carmel's pioneer builder, Mike Murphy helped design and constructed most of the early houses in Carmel, also Pine Inn, La Playa Hotel, Highlands Inn and Harrison Memorial Library.

Many property owners, who lived elsewhere in the first years of the settlement, would send letters to Mike Murphy describing the type of home they wanted in Carmel. When they returned here, Mike would have their house ready for occupancy. These many shingled and redwood board and bat structures, with fireplaces of native stone, are now what is known as "an early Carmel home." Typical of these houses are those on Camino Real in Professors' Row.

Mr. Murphy took an active part in many aspects of the early life of Carmel. He served on the city council and planted trees along streets laid out on what had been cleared ranch land. He was a charter member of the Manzanita Club, a social organization which showed the first movies in town. His genial personality endeared him to friends and customers.

When the Coast Highway was built in the early 1930s, Mr. Murphy's firm supplied materials and did rock crushing and concrete work for most of the bridges south of Carmel. He retired in 1941 and closed his firm in 1954. He retained, however, a part interest in the M. J. Murphy lumber business in Carmel Valley, operated by his son Frank.

After retiring, Mr. Murphy pursued his love of fishing, particularly in his camp in Oregon. Interest in his grandchildren also claimed much of his time.

Surviving him are his son, Franklin Murphy of Carmel, three daughters, Mrs. Fay Jones of Napa, Mrs. Rosalee Gladney of Kentfield and Mrs. Kathaleen Jones of San Lorenzo; a sister, Mrs. Ivy Sinclair of Carmel; and six grandchildren.

Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, pastor of the Church of the Wayfarer, officiated at funeral services for Mr. Murphy on Wednesday afternoon in the Dorney and Farlinger Memorial Chapel. Inurnment was in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea.

Luella Russell

Mrs. Luella Schneider Russell died in a San Jose Hospital on March 4 after a long illness.

Mrs. Russell was born in Plainfield, Illinois, on August 29, 1869. Her childhood was spent in Cleveland, Ohio. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of East Cleveland. Her husband, John Wilson Russell, died in 1932.

San Francisco was Mrs. Russell's home until she moved to Carmel in 1951. Here she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Berenice Russell Anderson.

Besides Mrs. Anderson, survivors are a son, Charles Wilson Russell of San Francisco; another daughter, Mrs. Eleanore Russell White of Carmel; a brother, Herbert L. Schneider of Cleveland Heights, Ohio; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Dr. Joseph M. Ewing, pastor of the Carmel Presbyterian Church, officiated at funeral services for Mrs. Russell on Saturday in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea. Inurnment was in El Carmelo Cemetery.

READINGS FOR NEW STUDIO PLAY CALLED FOR MARCH 19

The Studio Theater announces open readings for its sixth production of the season, George Axelrod's The Seven Year Itch. This high-style farce about the misadventures of a publisher of lurid paperback books, and his dream-fantasies when on the loose in New York while his wife is away summer vacationing after seven faithful years of marriage, made a star of Tom Ewell on Broadway a few seasons back.

There are parts open for the leading roles as described above, as well as several character comedy male roles, and "four long-stemmed beauties" to play Richard's dream romances. Readings will be held at The Studio on Dolores between Ocean and Seventh Streets, on March 19 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Further information may be obtained by telephoning MA 4-1661 daily 1:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

Emeline Curry

Mrs. Zora Emeline Curry died on March 5 in a San Jose hospital after a lengthy illness.

Five years ago Mrs. Curry came to live in Carmel with her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Mason. She was born on November 14, 1880, in Missouri. When she was six years old she accompanied her family to Texas in a covered wagon. The trip took four weeks. A year and a half later Mrs. Curry's family were in the vanguard of settlers for the newly-opened Indian Territory of Oklahoma. She met and married her husband, the late Carl Curry, in Oklahoma. He died in 1935.

Mrs. Curry was a member of the Carmel Foundation. She took long walks about the Peninsula and collected driftwood which she carved into original figurines. She wrote a poem for each carving and for special events at Town House.

Survivors, other than Mrs. Mason, are a sister, Mrs. O. C. Kamm of Carson City, Nevada; two sons, Carl and E. G. Curry of Joplin, Missouri; 17 grandchildren, including Joe and John Mason of Carmel and Bob Mason of Santa Clara; and 33 great-grandchildren.

Memorial services for Mrs. Curry were held on Sunday afternoon in the Litlle Chapel of the Church of the Wayfarer with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray officiating.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Emeline Curry may do so in the form of donations to Carmel Foundation, Box 3424, Carmel.

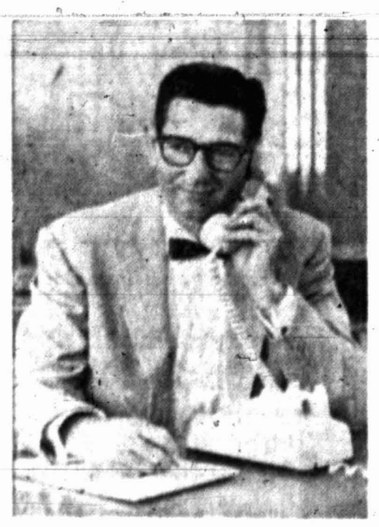
WHAT'S DOING
D. D. Muir, your Telephone Manager in Carmel

Most folks here in town never think of the telephone company when they see jet fighters tracing vapor trails through the sky. But the fact is that phone people are helping to speed up the nation's air defense by making it work almost automatically. We're building a network of telephone lines that are the nerves of a new system called SAGE. They carry signals from radar outposts to control centers in a flash. There, Air Forcemen see in an instant what's in the air, and can use SAGE's phone lines to order jets or missiles up without a second's delay. We watch over these lines with care to make sure they're always working for your safety and security.



Pictured here is Richard N. Bear who was appointed Assistant Manager in the Monterey Business Office on February 17, 1959. Dick, who has been with the Company for 16 years, came to Monterey from the Salinas District Sales Office where he has been for 3 years. Dick and his wife and three children plan to make their home in Monterey early next month.

ORDINANCE NO. 26

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE INSTALLATION AND MAINTENANCE OF LATERAL SEWERS

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this ordinance, the terms used herein are defined as follows:

Section 1: District is the Carmel Sanitary District.

Section 3: House Sewer is any sewer or drain beginning at the plumbing outlets of any building and running to the property line or to the line of any District easement.

Section 5: Main Sewer is any sewer accepted by the District within a public street or easement acquired for sewer purposes by the Sanitary District.

Section 6: Tapping is defined as coupling or connecting the lateral sewer with the main sewer by means of a saddle or other suitable device.

ARTICLE II
APPLICATION FOR INSTALLATION OF SEWER

Section 1. An owner of real property, the agent of an owner, a builder or a plumber registered with the board desiring to have a lateral sewer installed, repaired, or replaced, re-located or removed, shall make application to the Manager of the District to have the work done.

Section 2. This application shall be in writing and shall correctly describe by lot and block or metes and bounds the property to be connected to a main sewer by a lateral sewer.

Section 3. At the time of making an application the applicant shall designate the plumber duly registered by the District to do the work.

ARTICLE III
INSPECTION FEE AND COSTS

The inspection of the lateral and the tapping will be made on 24 hours' notice and payment of a fee of $2.50 therefor.

ARTICLE IV
DUTIES OF PLUMBER DOING WORK

Section 1. Installation of lateral sewer shall consist of digging and backfilling the trench, laying and installing the lateral and replacing the pavement; said installation shall conform to the specifications therefor on file at the office of the District.

Section 3. The plumber shall obtain the necessary bond and permit for opening the street required by the City or the County, and shall comply with existing county and city regulations regarding backfill.

Section 4. He shall carry public liability and property damage insurance to protect himself and the Carmel Sanitary District, its officers or agents, against liability imposed by law for damages on account of bodily injury including resulting death therefrom, suffered or alleged to have been suffered by any person or persons, other than employees of said plumber, resulting directly or indirectly from the performance or execution of the work, and also to protect the Sanitary District, its officers, employees or agents, against loss from liability imposed by law or damage to any property caused directly or indirectly by the installation of any lateral sewer.

Said public liability and property damage insurance shall be maintained by the plumber in full force and effect during the entire performance of the work in amounts not less than the following:

(1) Limit of liability for injury or accidental death:

One person $100,000.00.

One accident $200,000.00.

(2) Limit of Liability for property damage:

One accident $25,000.00.

Aggregate liability for loss $50,000.00.

Section 4. The plumber shall maintain adequate workmans' compensation insurance under the laws of the State of California for all labor employed by him or by any subcontractor under him who may come within the protection of such workmans' compensation laws and shall provide where practicable employers general liability insurance for the benefit of his employees and employees of any subcontractor under him not protected by such compensation laws.

Section 5. He shall provide proof of such insurance satisfactory to the District Board by filing certificates of such insurance with the board prior to the commencement of any work, and in addition, proof of the issuance of any bonds for opening of any street shall likewise be furnished the Board by submission of a certificate.

Section 7. The plumber shall not cover the installed sewers before the inspector has inspected and approved the installation.

ARTICLE V
MAINTENANCE OF LATERAL SEWERS

Section 1. Maintenance of lateral sewers is the sole responsibility of the property owner.

Section 2. The plumber shall report to the Sanitary District whenever he discovers any stoppage in the main sewers. The District will remove said stoppage without cost to the property owners.

Section 3. The plumber shall not use power tools in cleaning lateral sewers except with the approval and under the supervision of the General Manager.

ARTICLE VI
GENERAL APPLICATION

Section 1. The Manager is hereby appointed as the official agent of the District to carry out the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, whether acting for himself or as the agent or servant of another person, or of a firm, company or corporation, or as an officer, agent, employee or representative of any municipal corporation or of the state, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than Twenty-five dollars ($25.00), nor more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), or by imprisonment for a term of not more than thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 3. All ordinances and parts of ordinances insofar as they conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force one (1) week after the date of publication.

Section 5. This ordinance shall be published once in the Carmel Pine Cone in the edition of March 12th, 1959.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Sanitary Board of the Carmel Sanitary District, held therein on the 9th day of March, 1959, at the office of said Sanitary Board by the following vote;

AYES: MEMBERS: Evans, Knight, Neill, Pruitt, Shepard.
NOES: MEMBERS: None.
ABSENT: MEMBERS: None

JAMES PRUITT
President of said Sanitary Board.

Countersigned:
Chris A. Neddersen
Secretary thereof.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

How reliance on God's inexhaustible goodness brings abundance will be emphasized Sunday at Christian Science services.

The blessings of trust in God are brought out in passages to be read from the Bible, including this one from Psalms (34:8-10): "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. O fear the Lord, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing."

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy in the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Substance" will include this well-known statement (494:10 - 11): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (36:5): "Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds."

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian

There is a definite and interesting tie-up between librarians and the display in the Craft display case in the reading room. They say that Washington, D. C., is a place where you are either very busy or very lonely, and once upon a time a librarian lived there who was one of the lonely ones. On a tiny loom she began to invent patterns in weaving, and she named these patterns as her fancy dictated. Her name was Bertha Hayes, and the patterns she designed are beautiful and so delicate they are astonishing. Mrs. Verne Bartram has copied these delicate patterns and the results of her work fill two notebooks. These notebooks are on display in the library now and we hope that you will all come in to see them. There is a moral here about lonely people and the beauty that could come from loneliness, but we spare you the moralizing.

Librarians are always advocating open-type architecture for their buildings, with partitions made from shelving so that as conditions change the library can be rearranged. After studying the problem of noise in this library, I am of the opinion that the old-fashioned library with high, load-bearing walls and heavy doors to all rooms would be a lot easier type of library to keep quiet. Every step up and down the stairs here echoes over the whole building, and every word spoken in the reading room can be plainly heard up at the desk. So if you are going to complain about your mother-in-law, or your landlord, or tell someone you love her, whisper it. The walls may not have ears, but every person in the building does have them.

When I came here four years ago, I swore to myself that I would NOT shush patrons of this library. Everybody laughs at and loathes librarians who go about shushing. But we are doing just three times as much business as we did four years ago, and the building is the same size. We are too full of people most of the time to maintain much order or almost any semblance of quiet. We quiet down the students who have told their parents they needed to go to the library to study, and just as we get them still, some adult comes in the front door and shrieks, "Why Mary Jones, I haven't seen you in just years and years!!" and there we go again. You can't win for losing.

Our only suggestion is that if you are impatient about noise in the library, plan to come in the morning instead of the evening. Most of the time it's quiet here in the mornings. After all, the news is almost the same in the morning papers as it is in the evening papers. Meanwhile, we shall continue to do the best we can about noise and we hope for the understanding and the cooperation of all the adults in the locality. Really, it's up to you. We aren't policemen, just librarians.

Certainly, we have a lot of good new books. Another one about Mr. Churchill is called Winston Churchill, the Years of Preparation, by Lewis Broad. The memoirs of Alma Mahler Werfel is called And the Bridge Is Alive. Married in turn to three famous men, Madame Werfel's story is one of interesting anecdotes. The wines of California occupy a magnum of space in The Commonsense Book of Wine by Leon Adams. History from an eyewitness account is embodied in The American Reader by Paul Angle. This book covers the history of our country from Columbus to the launching of Explorer I. There are a couple of new mystery stories. Variety here, and all worthwhile and interesting.

LETTER LAUDS MIKE

Midshipman Michael Raggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Raggett, is praised in a letter sent to The Pine Cone by Congressman Charles M. Teague.

"I am sure you will be interested that Mike Raggett is doing splendidly at Annapolis, writes Mr. Teague. "I have just been furnished with his grades for his first marking period. He ranks in the top two per cent of a class of 1,017 and is first in marine engineering. This is a truly remarkable record."

Mike graduated from Carmel High School last June, standing second in his class. Also he was a member of the football and track teams.

Studio Theatre Offers Poignant Drama In Tennessee Williams' Plays

BY MAX TADLOCK

When a playwright reaches the position of importance Tennessee Williams has attained in the American theatre, those interested in the drama want to see not only his major works but his minor things as well. No little theatre group on the Peninsula is better suited to giving us this opportunity than the The Studio.

On Friday night they opened with four short plays of Mr. Williams' presented as a unit entitled Women and Tennessee Williams. And a rewarding evening's entertainment it is.

The first of these, Something Unspoken, concerns itself with the relationship between a strong-willed Southern grandedame and her soft-spoken secretary of 15 years. Barbara Burdick as the employer dominates her hired companion with a masculine strength that alternates between sadism and unconscious pleading. Unwilling to face what has been the need of both, Lavonne Garrison, as the secretary, refuses to speak of their dependence on each other, their need for something further in their desperate relationship.

Completely different in tone is the second presentation. More a vignette than a dramatic piece, it is an interlude in the raucous lives of two convention-followers, that peacetime equivalent of the camp-follower. Nancy Bushore as Bessie and Sandra Six as Flora both gave the broad burlesque performances the roles demanded. They did give us some insight into the dashed and almost forgotten aspirations that still haunt such people, but primarily the roles were comic relief from the stark drama of the first play.

This Property Is Condemned is the real jewel of the four pieces. In that suspended unreality inhabited by the child-woman, Mr. Williams has placed two almost fey young beings—a girl who has inherited the fatal legacy of her sister (a dress too big, jewelry too flashy, and the railroad men who called at the end of a run), and a boy only, perhaps, a year or so her junior.

Tina Dinkin gave a sensitive performance as the child in silk hose, the woman with the "crazy doll." But sharing honors only with Sheila Goldes for the outstanding performance of the evening, who starred in the last play, was Pat McGibney, the boy. There was a wrenching naivete in his portrayal that added luster and poignancy to a fine dramatic scene.

Portrait of a Madonna is rather obviously the author's earlier view from Streetcar Named Desire. And for me, it is even more satisfying than that of Blanche. Perhaps, the excellent portrayal of the mad woman by Sheila Goldes had something to do with this impression. With an assist from Clifford Berry as the kindly porter and Jerry DeBono as the sadistic elevator boy, Miss Goldes gave a virtuoso performance that held the audience enspelled.

It was a pleasure to see The Studio doing truly studio productions suited to their stage limitations. William Glaves is to be commended for his clean spare staging which kept the emphasis on the players and their relationships.

This production will run week ends until further notice and is recommended for an evening of interesting and at times very poignant drama.

Joan Burk Sets Wedding Date

Joan Burk, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Harris Burk of Carmel and Peter Burk of Tucson, Arizona, has set May 30 as the date of her wedding to John Arthur Murphy II, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Murphy of Phoenix, Arizona. The ceremony is to be in St. Phillip's Episcopal Church in Tucson.

Mrs. Burk is driving to Tucson next week to help Joan, who is visiting her father, with wedding plans. She will also attend the initiation of her younger daughter, Diana, into the University of Arizona chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mrs. Burk, a Kappa herself, will pin the sorority's membership key on Diana during the initiation ceremony.

Both Joan and Diana are returning to Carmel with Mrs. Burk. Diana will be here for Easter vacation from college. Joan will remain longer.

Joan's fiance is a law student at the University of Arizona where he obtained his bachelor's degree in 1957 and was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Joan graduated from the University of Arizona the same year. She studied at Stanford University for two years before transferring to Arizona. Recently she returned from 16 months abroad.

Charles Mohler is now the public relations director for Phinney-McGinnis travel agency. He returned from his last European trip several months ago. While abroad Chuck wrote travel articles for magazines and newspapers. A book on some of his former European experiences is being published by Beacon Press in July.

With his wife Hazel, Chuck visited South American countries as a guest of Pan-American Airlines before the birth of the couple's son Chaco, almost four years ago.

Elementary P.T.A. Potlucks

P.T.A. potluck suppers are planned for Sunset, Woods and River School parents next week. Teachers on the faculty of each school will be guests of honor at the three events.

On Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock, Sunset parents gather in the cafeteria for the supper arranged by Mrs. Roderick McArthur, P.T.A. vice president for Sunset School.

Tuesday evening, at 7:00 o'clock, Woods School parents will be greeted by Woods vice president, Mrs. Garry J. Anloff Jr., as they arrive for a potluck supper in the Woods School cafeteria.

Friday evening River School parents meet, at 7:30 o'clock, for dessert and coffee. There is no cafeteria at River so a dessert party, rather than a supper, was planned by this school's vice president, Mrs. Charles K. Felder.

No business and no programs are planned for any of the three affairs. Parents will have an opportunity, instead, to talk with one another and teachers on the staff of each of the three elementary schools in Carmel.

Gay Plans Wedding In Cairo

Gay Masten, only daughter of Mrs. Hildreth T. Hare and the late Richard Masten, arrived in Carmel 10 days ago after a 42-hour flight from Cairo, Egypt. On Tuesday her fiance, George E. Economakis of Cairo, arrives in Carmel for a visit. They will be married in Cairo on April 23.

Mrs. Hare is unable to go to Egypt for the wedding. Her future son-in-law decided to come here to meet her and his fiancee's brothers, Ric and Warren Masten, and Donn and Lee Hare, also her aunt, Mrs. Eleanor Taylor James of Pasadena.

Gay and George will travel East after leaving California to see George's sister who is a student at Vassar, also his brother who is attending Columbia University, then return to Egypt. They will live in Cairo after their marriage.

Gay has been secretary to the American ambassador in Cairo for over a year. Her future husband is the chairman of the Investment Bank of Egypt, which he helped found, and executive vice president of the Commercial Trust Company in Cairo.

Democratic Bazaar March 19

A bake sale, book sale and bazaar is planned for March 19 in the Carmel Masonic Hall by the Carmel Women's Democratic Club. Handmade jewelry, hot cross buns, succulent plants, children's sweaters, books of all kinds, pocketbooks and aprons are among items for sale. Easter animals, egg cups and decorated eggs may also be purchased.

Doors open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. A salad lunch will be served from noon till 1:30 o'clock.

Stanford Conference March 21

The public is invited to attend the 1959 Stanford Conference at Monterey Peninsula College on March 21. The event is sponsored by the Stanford Alumni Association, Stanford University, and the Monterey Peninsula, Salinas Valley and San Benito County Stanford Clubs. There is a small fee for both registration and luncheon. All students may attend free of charge.

Registration is at 9:30 o'clock with the keynote address at 10:15. Lectures, a panel discussion and luncheon fill the conference program until the last events begin at 2:40 o'clock.

Stanford in the Space Age is the keynote of the meetings. Titles of lectures to be given by Stanford faculty members are Journey to the Moon, The Community and the Intellectual, What Californians Should Know About Earthquakes, Crisis Diplomacy, Morality in the Marketplace, and Will Highways Strangle California?

Further information may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. D. F. Reichard, MA 4-7426.

Carmel Stanford alumni assisting with this year's conference include Mr. and Mrs. J. Archibald Butts, Mayor and Mrs. John Chitwood, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferrante, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton B. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Swim and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fratessa are among those who will entertain speakers.

Susie Wins Lions Contest

Susie Sparrow won over Judy Drake in the recent Lions Club Student Speakers Contest in Carmel. Tomorrow night she competes in the zone contest in the Monterey Public Library at 7:30 o'clock. Speakers in this contest are students representing the Seaside and Monterey Lions Clubs. Zone winner will compete in district finals in Salinas in April.

League Meeting Place Changed

Meeting place for the League of Women Voters general membership meeting on Wednesday has been changed.

Instead of the Monterey USO, as announced in the monthly bulletin, the meeting will be held at the New Monterey Neighborhood Center, Lighthouse and Dickman Avenues. The meeting will start with the serving of coffee and cake at 12:30 o'clock.

Annual reports of the League Observers, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fremont Slattery, will constitute the program.

The League covers the meetings of most public bodies, including city and county planning commissions, city councils, county board of supervisors, the school boards, and the new water district board. Since the Observers are allowed only to observe, their reports are highly objective, always enlightening and often amusing.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Leon Cone, FR 5-1069.

Youth Center Gets City Land For Auditorium

The Youth Center was granted use of 20 feet of city land at the rear of the Center to build an extension on the auditorium, yesterday, when council, planning commission and youth center committees met at the center to look over the property.

Council granted use of the land at its meeting last month, but when the auditorium plans came before the planning commission, the planners asked for delay, thinking that the space would be needed for additional access and building if the neighboring city lots should be used for a post office-city hall structure.

Planners decided, on looking over the property, that the 20 feet could be spared.

A meeting of the Crosby Committee, set for tomorrow night, when the Youth Center was to make formal application for money to extend the auditorium, has been postponed until March 18, because of the illness of one of the board members, Peter Ferrante.

Letter To The Editor . . .

Editor of The Pine Cone:

Santa Clara Planner John Belser states that his county has 50,000 acres under green-belt zoning at the present time. How many does Monterey County have? Couldn't we make a beginning in lower Carmel Valley?

Perhaps the Monterey County Planning Commission should arrange a junket to Santa Clara County to see this plan in operation. I understand that it has attracted nation-wide attention.

Very sincerely,
C. Edward Graves

Town Topics . . .

Scenic Drive was closed to traffic for a block beyond Martin Way on Friday and Tuesday while Warner Bros. shot shore scenes for A Summer Place at the Frank-Lloyd-Wright-designed Walker house. Tuesday snow drifts appeared in the Ocean Avenue center planting strip. Last week, on Thursday, All Saints' Church was snow-drifted for a wedding scene.

A temporary reforestation project was needed for the shore scenes. Small pines were placed on the Walker property. These trees with all kinds of other equipment, including costumes, were moved to locations by a caravan of trucks, gypsy-like. In keeping with this atmosphere was the sight of a wardrobe employe sitting on truck steps in the sun beside the shore . . . sewing gold braid on a naval officer's cap.

Once in a while Carmel can take being part of the State of Maine for a movie, but not often.

POLICE OFFICER FLETCHER HOSPITALIZED

Desk Officer Lester Fletcher of the Carmel Police Force was taken to the Monterey Hospital about 6:00 o'clock last night in the Red Cross ambulance, operated by Carmel Volunteer Fire Department members, after suffering a heart attack at his home.

He is reported as in much better condition this morning.

NOT MUCH CASH * BUT A BIG INCOME?

AND A DESIRE TO OWN A HOME IN CARMEL? We have a few houses here right now that are available with very low down payments—$2,000 to $5,000. These are not overpriced houses for poor credit risks, but represent genuine value at listed prices. We have 2, 3, and 4 bedroom houses in the price range of $25,000 to $40,000. Monthly payments will be fairly high.

TWO BEDROOMS * $[illegible],000 * $2,500 DOWN

THERE IS ABSOLUTELY nothing the matter with this house; it is in immaculate condition. All the rooms are a good size—there is even a dining room. All rooms have beamed ceilings, but the house is not flat-roofed. The floor plan is excellent. The price is exactly right. The down-payment is low because the owner does not need the cash. Vacant and we have the key. Exclusive.

TWO BEDROOMS * OCEAN VIEW * $25,500

THIS ONE IS A LITTLE GEM—It is beautifully situated at the South end of town. Both the house, and the attractive garden surrounding it are well-maintained. If you are in the market for a house that is not too big, but very well-planned, let us show you this one. Vacant and we have the key.
